

Darcie Johnson – biography

Soprano Darcie Johnson teaches class voice, private voice and singers diction at Lindenwood University. She has been an active performer and teacher in the St. Louis since 2008. She is Soprano I section leader for The Bach Society of St. Louis and The Church of St. Michael and St. George. She has been a featured soloist with Bach Society with conductor A. Dennis Sparger, and appears on their CD “Great & Marvelous; Bach Society of Saint Louis.” She has been soloist with the St. Louis Philharmonic Orchestra with conductor Robert Hart Baker, and the Manchester United Methodist Church.

[rev 2019]