

Ethan Mayer, 17, is a St. Louis Missouri native and began playing the violin at the age of 6. He is currently a junior at Clayton High School in Clayton, Missouri. Ethan is a member of both the St. Louis Symphony Youth Orchestra, where he serves as Assistant ConcertMaster, and the The Community Music School Preparatory Program for Chamber Music. In addition, he played with the Missouri All State Orchestra for two years. In 2017 he was the winner of the Belleville Philharmonic Concerto Competition and received Honorable Mention at the University of Missouri Concerto Competition. In May of 2018, Ethan was invited to play a solo with with St. Louis Symphony Orchestra for their Link Up concert and he participated in the Fischhoff National Chamber Music Competition. He is an alumnus of Center Stage for Strings at the University of Michigan (summer 2017) and Meadowmount School of Music (summer 2018). He currently studies with Joo Kim of the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra.